

SHORE TOWNS AGAIN SLEEP IN SECURITY

Mamaroneck Strike Ended by Agreement and Hostilities Are Over.

UNION NOT RECOGNIZED

Laborers to Get Better Terms and Padrone System to Be Wiped Out.

MAMARONECK, N. Y., April 16. Through the efforts of representatives of the State Board of Mediation and Arbitration, working with Sheriff William J. Doyle, the strike of the 2,500 road and sewer laborers which transformed the shore towns into armed camps was settled to-day. Representatives of the strikers' union and the contractors were brought together and reached a compromise.

The contractors will pay 22 cents an hour for work on all present contracts. The men asked for 25 cents an hour. They have agreed to work nine hours a day. On contracts yet to be begun the wages will be 25 cents an hour for an eight hour workday. The demand for a recognition of the union was withdrawn. All padrone systems will be abolished. There will be weekly paydays.

The meeting this morning was held in the Town Hall at Mamaroneck and was attended by Col. M. J. Regan and John J. Bealin of the State Board; Dr. John E. Hunter, President of the village; Sheriff Doyle, Corporation Counsel, Fallon, Giovanni D'Allesandro, president of the Laborers' General International Union, Anselmo Glionio and other strike leaders. A dozen contractors were present. Scattered about the hall were armed officers to prevent any outbreak. At the close of the conference strike leaders and the contractors shook hands and seemed pleased.

An adjustment of the differences was reached after a three hour conference, in which the strikers' representatives declared that the men wanted no more bloodshed and desired living wages. "These men cannot live on $1.50 or $1.60 a day," said President D'Allesandro. "Besides, they have a padrone system in Mamaroneck and the poor men are forced to pay $2 before they can get a job."

The funeral of Raffaele Pina, who was killed on Monday, will be held to-morrow. So pleased were the officials that the men had agreed to end the strike that they consented to allow the strikers to march in a body with the funeral from Harrison to New Rochelle. The village presidents of Harrison, Mamaroneck and Larchmont and the Mayor of New Rochelle issued parade permits. It is expected that 3,000 men will be in line, but no trouble is feared. All special deputies and private detectives were relieved from duty to-night and the owners of large estates hung up their rifles and were looking forward to a full night's rest.

Suits without "ginger" aren't worth a snap.

Our Spring suits are worth every cent you pay.

If you don't think so—"your money back."

Judging, however, from the way men and especially young men are taking to our 1913 models, it looks as if "money back" were their last thought.

Still our guarantee goes just the same.

When we say some of our Spring overcoats of fancy Scotch cheviots are "Scotch Mist" proofed, remember that they're more than "mist" proofed—they're "Scotch Mist" proofed.

TAILORED SUITS Specially Priced

From the scores of clever tailored and demi-tailored suits in the Macy assortments, three models, typical of fashion's trend, have been selected for special selling.

In the New Department—Third Floor.

Shepherd's Check or Serge Suits $38.75

Copy of a "Bernard" Model.

Cut on entirely new lines, the coat of the smart suit (illustrated), has wide sailor collar, cuffs and vestee of black satin, is braid bound and trimmed and is lined with finest peau de cygne. Draped skirt has a fitted girdle top.

Men's wear serge in black and navy.
Shepherd's check black and white worsted.

Russian Blouse Suits of Men's Wear Serge $33.75

A graceful model, the typical Russian coat, trimmed with cordings of satin, finished with an effective collar of net with gay embroidery in Bulgarian colorings. The skirt, shirred at the back, has the latest belt effect.

In men's wear serge of excellent quality—navy blue or black.

Demi-Tailored Suits of Moire Poplin $29.75

Mandarin coat of jaunty style, draped at the sides and finished with ornamental cordings of the fabric. A collar of embroidered net and lace is overlaid on a satin collar in matching color and the coat is lined with white peau de cygne. The draped skirt folds are caught with elaborately corded ornaments.

In Oriental brown, taupe, navy and black moire poplin.

Ample plain crepe is provided for the bodice with three yards of embroidery bands to match the flounce for trimming.

Charming NEW Models in AFTERNOON GOWNS

In soft clinging silks, crepe de chine and Canton crepe, the new season's frocks with their artistic draperies, picturesque touches of color and clever details of trimming are especially attractive.

Featured for special selling are three models, representative of the new mode and typical of Macy's values.

In the New Department—Third Floor.

Dainty Dresses
of Imprime Foulard $18.74

Two very effective models, one of which (as illustrated), has vest, collar and cuffs of fine embroidered batiste.

The other has shadow lace revers and vestee with velvet straps and crystal buttons. Both models have gracefully draped skirts, and are distinguished by their excellent style and finish.

Pompadour rosebud printed patterns on old blue, Copenhagen, navy or brown satin finished Foulard.

Russian Blouse Dresses of Novelty Crepe $23.74

A fine white French cotton crepe is employed for this frock, which has collar and cuffs edged with Irish crochet lace. The soft, wide crushed girdle is of "Nellrose" satin and a rose of the same at the collar adds a dainty finishing touch. The deep tunic falls in soft folds over the straight line skirt.

Afternoon Gowns
of Satin Foulard $34.75

Printed satin brocade foulard is employed for these very handsome dresses, copied from an imported model. The vestee of fine net has soft surplus folds at the sides, and revers, wide collar and cuffs, are of Chinese embroidered batiste in soft but vivid color combination. Both the girdle and draped skirt are button-trimmed.

In exquisite shades of ustaria, taupe, old blue, beige and olive.

Burlington Arcade THE MEN'S STORE

Pretty wet weather.

Reminds us of the old man who was sitting on the roof of his house during a flood, watching the waters flow past, when a neighbor who possessed a boat rowed across to him.

"Hello, Bill," he said.

"Hello, Sam," replied the other, pleasantly.

"All your fowls washed away this mornin', Bill?"

"Yes, but the ducks can swim."

"Apple tree gone, too, eh?"

"Well, they said the crop would be a failure, anyhow."

"I see the river's reached above your windows."

"That's all right, Sam. Them winders needed washin'."

Bill was a good philosopher. But we are quite sure he put himself and his place—as far as he could—in position to weather more satisfactorily any other flood that might come his way.

Did you observe that the weather sharps didn't warn us of this week's rain? One hardly needs a better illustration of the wisdom of preparedness.

Today—if you haven't got one—

Get a Raincoat

We have saved you the trouble of choosing from the thousand and more kinds—many of which are raincoats only in name. These are warranted.

Suits

All the good woollens. All desirable weaves. Plain blues and grays. Mixtures, checks, stripes. Smooth and rough finish. Standard of the world. But not standardized.

These suits are a little different from those of last spring; a little better, too.

Got to keep ahead, you know.

Many Shoes

but only one ANATOMIK.

"What? Pay $8 for a pair of shoes?" said one man to another who was buying a pair of Anatomik shoes in the Men's Shoe Shop, recently.

"Yes, I'd pay $800 for them, if I had to," was the reply, delivered with emphasis.

ANATOMIK shoes are the only shoes scientifically made.

They conform absolutely to anatomical requirements.

They provide support where support is needed; something, strange to say, no other shoe does.

They correct fallen arch. Worn in time, they will prevent it.

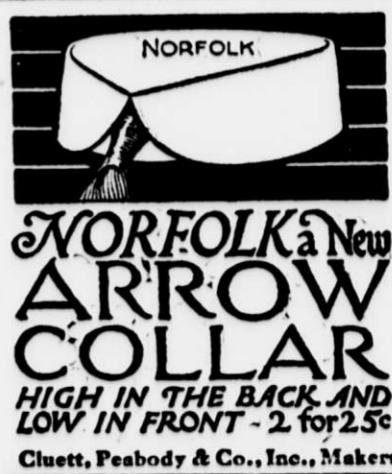

ANATOMIK shoes are the best shoes in the world for men who are constantly on their feet.

And for women and children, too.
